Personalized Learning

Educators around the world have come to know and love the Individual Test Reports provided after an Avant assessment has been completed. This one page report is packed with information, providing insights into a test taker's performance in each skill assessed as well as recommendations to "Power Up" to the next level.

Test results are aligned to the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines and report from Novice-Low up to Advanced-High.

Empowering the Language Learning Journey

Valid and Reliable Assessment

Reliable assessments aren't just cold statistics; they're the heartbeats of progress, lighting up the path with defined objectives and accomplishments. True growth isn't limited to an annual exam: it's the everyday victories and small but tangible steps forward. Avant STAMP isn't just any assessment tool — it's the gold standard.

Build Pathways

Avant's assessments are passports to powerful credentials, including the prestigious State and Global Seals of Biliteracy. Teachers and learners proudly pin these badges onto their profiles, college applications, and resumes. The American Council on Education's (ACE) recommendation of Avant STAMP for college credit means learners aren't just able to showcase their skills—they're able to demonstrate their readiness to advance their learning in higher education, global adventures, and opportunities in the working world.

Personalize Instruction

Imagine a roadmap tailored for every learner. Every number and every trend whispers a story about a learner's strengths, aspirations, and areas ripe for growth. Knowledge is power and with this enriched understanding educators can sculpt lessons and interventions that resonate, inspire, and elevate learners to reach their full potential.

Professional Learning

Build Pathways

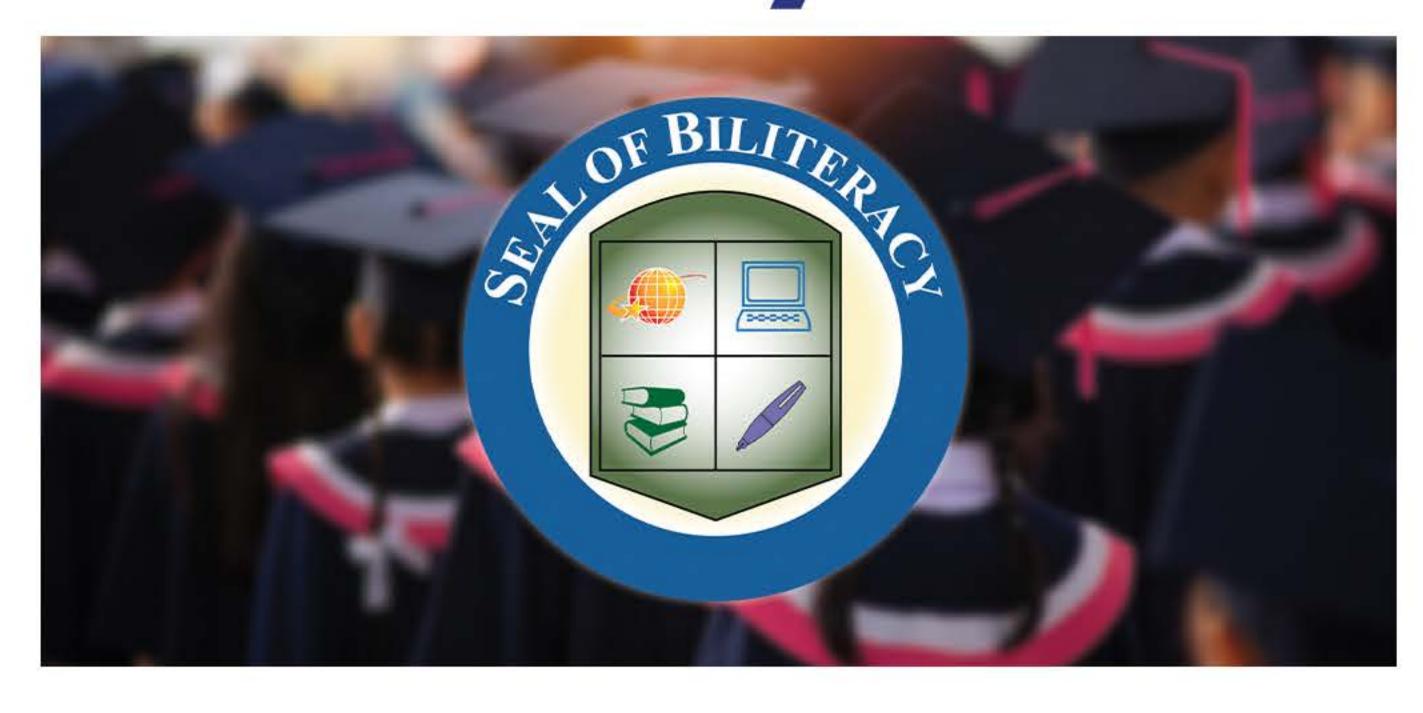

to Higher Education and Careers

Credit by Exam

Create opportunities for language learners to receive recognition for their skills learned in or out of the classroom. Avant's assessments are used to award credit by exam at the secondary and post-secondary levels.

State Seals of Biliteracy

Celebrate your learners' language skills with State Seals of Biliteracy. Avant STAMP tests qualify in every state that offers the Seal.

The Global Seal of Biliteracy

The Global Seal of Biliteracy is a free, digitally shareable credential that has been issued in over 30 countries by secondary schools, universities, and employers.

College Credit

Inspire learners to continue their language learning journey by giving them a head start toward a college minor or major. Avant STAMP tests are recommended for college credit by the American Council on Education (ACE).
